The Step dame made her Cinders sift
Sure never was her fellow
And from this dirty work she got
The name of Cinderella

It happend once upon A time
The Kings Son gave A Ball
And he the Lady's of the town
Invited one and All

In Feathers and in Rich Array
To Court the Sisters went
While Cinderella sat and Cry'd
And did her fate Lament

Her Godmother A Fairy was
 Of Cinderella fond
 And said you to the Ball shall go
 Bring here my dear that wand

A Coach she from A Pompion made
 A Coachman from A Rat
 Four Mice to four fine Horses changd
 Most Beautiful and Fat

From Lizards she six Footmen made
 And altering of her Drefs
 To return before the clock struck twelve
 She kindly did her Prefs

Faint, illegible text or markings at the bottom of the page, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side. The text is too light to read accurately.

After the Midnight hour is struck
 Says she my Power is gone
 Your finery will change to Rags
 As sure as you are Born

But as she Danced the clock struck twelve
 No finery could She find
 And as she out with Terror Flew
 One Slipper Left Behind

The Prince he promised he would wed
 Whoer that shoe would fit
 But no one in his Court their foot
 Could in the Slipper get

The Page unto the Sisters went
 As they was at the Ball
 Alone twould Cinderella fit
 Which much Surprised them all

The prince fulfilld his word next
 Unto her he was Wed
 And she forgave her Sisters Pride
 And Happily they Lived
